

Esker Acquires e-integration GmbH, Strengthening Its EDI Position in Germany

Madison, WI — February 8, 2017 — Esker, Inc., a worldwide leader in document process automation solutions and pioneer in cloud computing, today announced it has finalized the acquisition of e-integration GmbH, the Düsseldorf, Germany-based electronic data interchange (EDI) service provider. Esker's intent to acquire the company was first announced in October 2016.

Offering a suite of EDI services, e-integration covers a wide range of solutions for the automation of order management, e-invoicing, logistics, procurement and other business-critical processes. Its online platform currently connects more than 7,000 companies worldwide. The acquisition of e-integration will allow Esker to further grow and develop in Europe's leading market, increase its revenue in the German market by more than 150 percent, and strengthen its customer base with 600 new active accounts, comprised of mid-sized industrial companies.

In 2016, e-integration's EDI business generated 3.28 million euros in total sales revenue, an increase of more than 13 percent over 2015, with pro-forma pretax profit estimated at 17 percent of sales.

Esker has also acquired a 20 percent share in e-integration's PROmitea business, a cloud-based application, which will continue to be managed by its majority shareholder. PROmitea helps companies automate procurement, sourcing and supplier relationships.
