Esker Clarifies Position on Speculated Acquisition Proposal

LYON, France, and MIDDLETON, Wis. — August 12, 2024

A press article dated August 9, 2024, mentions that Bridgepoint Group Plc (“Bridgepoint”) is considering launching a public offer for Esker (the “Company”).

Esker confirms having discussions with Bridgepoint regarding a potential offer.

As part of its ongoing strategic process, the Company regularly evaluates its options. These options include seeking new strategic shareholders but also continuing its impressive journey as a publicly listed company.

The ongoing discussions with Bridgepoint are part of this approach. However, there is no certainty that these discussions will lead to an agreement or transaction, nor to the terms and timing thereof.

Esker is committed to keeping the public informed of any significant developments in this regard.
